■ FAQ's >

1. Is UJAMAA Online Black Owned?

Yes. UJAMAA Online was founded by two Black women from London.

2. How do we ensure the businesses published on UJAMAA Online are authentic and Black Owned?

Each business has to go through a verification process which checks:

- A) that the business is who they say they are

- B) That the business is Black (inclusive of mix raced with Black) Owned or majority Black Owned.

- C) that the business is an active and correctly classified a non profit (if applicable)

We believe our chosen method of verification is sufficient enough in verifying the above without being too invasive of the business. However, if you suspect a fraudulent business or a business pretending to be Black Owned, feel free to report this by going to Help > Report something

About Us >	UJAMAA ONLINE
	UJAMAA Online is the leading Directory App for connecting customers to Black Owned Businesses in the UK. Our platform showcases a wide range of businesses and content from physical store fronts, to e-commerce, to content creation, YouTube and podcasts.

UJAMAA (pronounced oo-ja-maa) is a Swahili term, that means corporative economics, which envisions a community working together to generate wealth. This exemplifies what we are about, and what we want to achieve by creating a platform that uplifts the UK's Black community.

Our Customer App welcomes all. As well as being easy-to-use and convenient, the App is interactive and social, with exclusive content like special discounts. We strive to make the customer experience fun and desirable. We want searching on UJAMAA Online to be every customers first instinct!

A business is nothing without its customers, so UJAMAA Online and our partnering businesses appreciate all your support.
